1. Are you able to put enough good food on the table?

Yes but not enough. Went to get food stamp and was given 145.00 for the month .By the end of the month .There was no more food or stamp. Thank god for the food pantry on Stratford Ave the Dunbar center.

2. Are your children feeling the stress of the stress of tight finances?

Yes my child is feeling stress more than ever .Not going outside no money. Not having for nothing .being evict from your house is the most stressful thing to happen to a young person.

3. Is college tuition still within reach?

No because no money to send out application .and hopes that the country doesn't run out of money for finical aide.

4. Can your teenager find a job?

No not right now. The recession has the older people getting the job that would be for the younger people.

5. Is the government responding to your needs?

Hello no

I wrote Gov Ral and she responded and told me to call leave aid and they told me that they had to many case on Danbury housing all ready and they could not help me .I lost my section 8 .and now I have been evict 2 time and the stress on my kids and their grade and GPS score has went down and right I went to see if any-one could help with rental asst .And they ask me if I just got out of jail I said no. did I have a mental problem or a drug or action problem I said no and they ask me am I homeless I said yes as of the 15th of February .they told me could not help right now.
